Faith's Lodge Announces Sponsors For 2013 Hope Rocks

BI Worldwide is this year's presenting sponsor, C.H. Robinson and FILO are the dinner and stage/entertainment sponsors, respectively

Minneapolis – August 23, 2013 – A charitable organization needs deep business and community roots to be successful in the long-term. Financial partners and support are important to sustainability of the overall mission. With that in mind, Faith's Lodge is proud to announce its long roster of substantial supporters for its premier fundraising event, Hope Rocks, which is on Friday, Sept. 13, in downtown Minneapolis.

"Throughout our history we've been fortunate to have deep, long-term financial support from individuals and businesses," said Kelly McDyre, Executive Director of Faith's Lodge. "Hope Rocks wouldn't happen without this support at all levels, whether it be attending our great event or signing on as a sponsor, or both."

This year, BI Worldwide is the Hope Rocks presenting partner and C.H. Robinson is the dinner sponsor. FILO is the stage and entertainment sponsor and Lindquist & Venum LLP is the red carpet sponsor. Optum is sponsoring the VIP Reception, Peter and Martha Eckerline are sponsoring the Rocker Lounge, and Pediatric Home Service is the volunteer sponsor. Cities 97 and Minnesota Monthly are the media sponsors.

Faith's Lodge is a place of hope and healing for families facing the serious illness or death of a child. Hope Rocks is the cornerstone of Faith's Lodge fundraising effort. Now in its sixth year, the event takes place at The Depot in downtown Minneapolis is described as a night of hope, healing, and rocking for cause.
